

Curated Annotated Bibliographic Collection Activity

STEP ONE: Instructions for successful completion of the 3 stage process:

1. Select your topic from the choices listed on the google document.
2. Coordinate with your group members who will begin the process of starting the Sway or multi-media educational presentation.
3. Research your topic and post 3 different sources here from each group member.

STEP TWO: Instructions for the next stage of the Sway

1. Organize the information to show to a target audience of people who are potentially have low health literacy.
2. Write a summary article based on the data you personally posted.
3. The article will be written will be for written at an 8th grade level.
4. Insert these summary articles, as though this is a newsletter.

STEP THREE: Instructions for the last stage of success.

1. Post your sway link to the discussion board for the class to view.
2. Write a 2 page research paper based on your collective data about this topic.
3. Submit to the drop box by the due date.